Diversity and Inclusion Award 2020

This award recognises the company that drives improved business results through recognising and promoting the value of diverse teams and inclusive behaviours.

AWARD CRITERIA:

The winning organisation will demonstrate how they have translated and operationalised diversity and inclusiveness policies and aspirations to transform the way the company works and improve business performance.

Diversity ranges across a number of differences including (but not limited to):

- background, education, gender, ethnicity, nationality, generation, age, working and thinking styles, religious background, sexual orientation, gender identity, ability, lifestyle, perspectives, work experience and technical skills, plus differences according to service line, sector and function.

Inclusiveness is about leveraging these differences to achieve better business performance. It includes focusing on the needs of every individual and ensuring the right conditions are in place for each person to achieve his or her full potential.
