Energy Transition Award 2021

This award recognises a company that is leading the way in how we approach and contribute to the Energy Transition in the UK.

AWARD CRITERIA:

This award seeks to acknowledge companies that have demonstrated excellence in their contribution to the energy transition. This may be achieved through facilitating emissions reduction across the oil and gas value chain (from production to use), or in the development and deployment of low carbon technologies such as e.g. carbon capture and storage or hydrogen production and use.
